

QCA Members Survey

2015

response rate

We received a total of 80 surveys back from about 250 email and postal sends

The proportion of responses was higher with the hardcopy sends than the emailed surveys

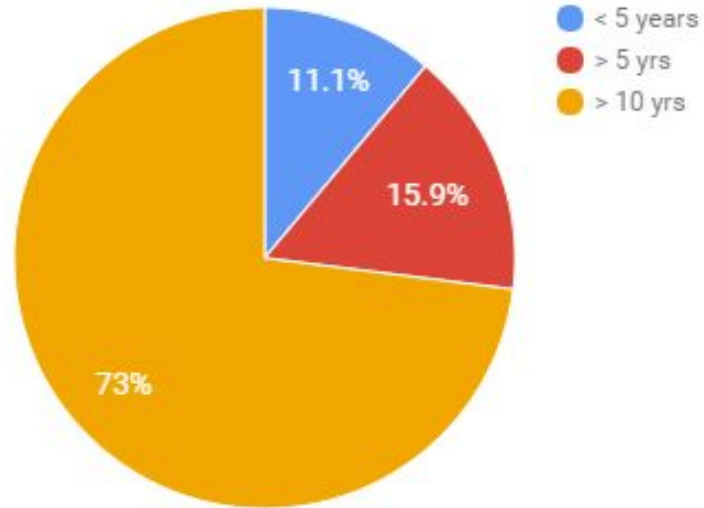

1. Are you a Quaker or regular attender of a Quaker Meeting?

Yes 76%

No 24%

2. If yes, for roughly how long?

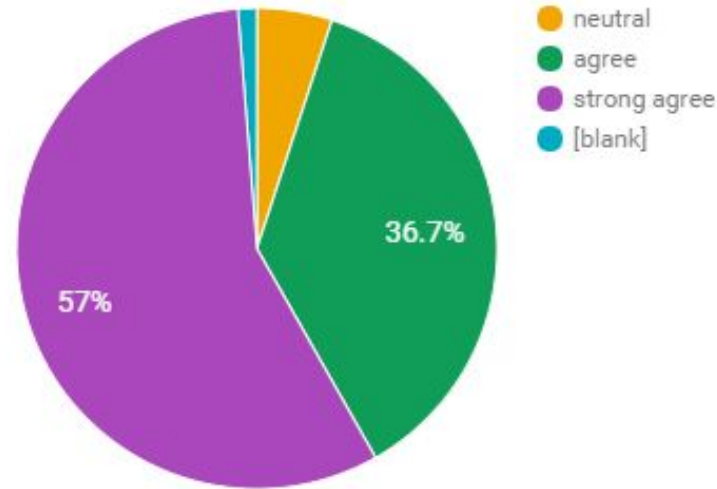

2. If yes, for roughly how long?

2. If yes, for roughly how long?

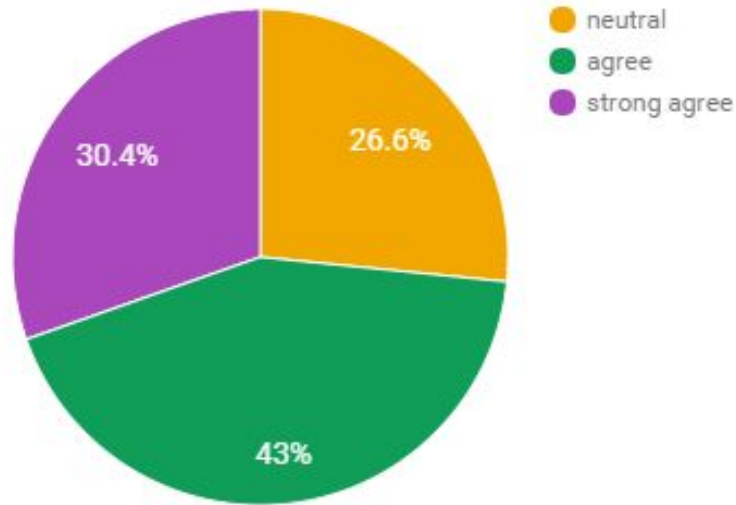

3. QCA should do more to raise the profile of animal issues within The Religious Society of Friends.

3. QCA should do more to raise the profile of animal issues within The Religious Society of Friends.

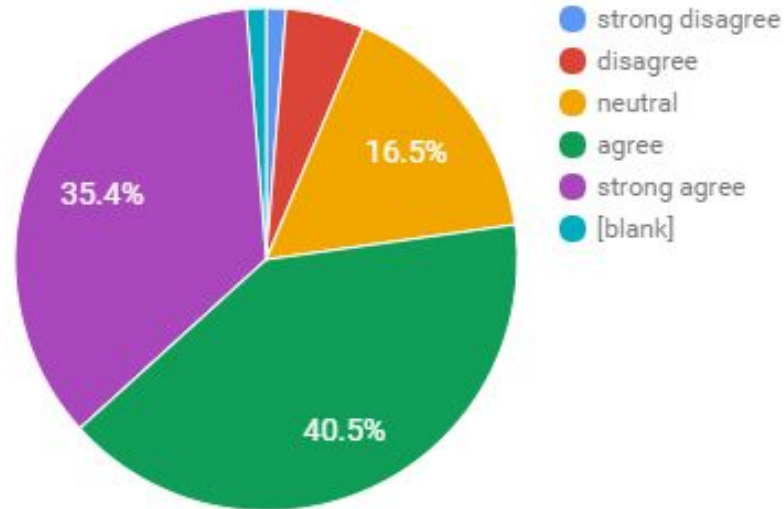

4. QCA should do more active campaigning on animal issues.

4. QCA should do more active campaigning on animal issues.

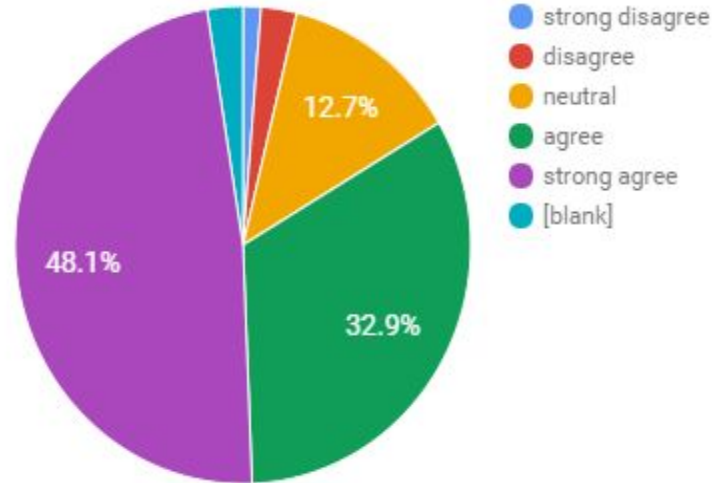

5. QCA should actively promote vegetarian/vegan lifestyles.

5. QCA should actively promote vegetarian/vegan lifestyles.

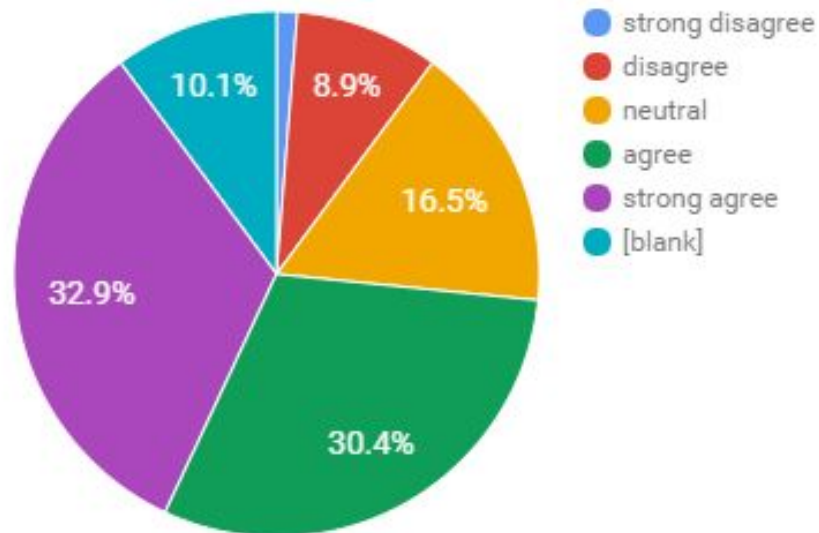

6. It is important for QCA to maintain its current interfaith witness.

6. It is important for QCA to maintain its current interfaith witness.

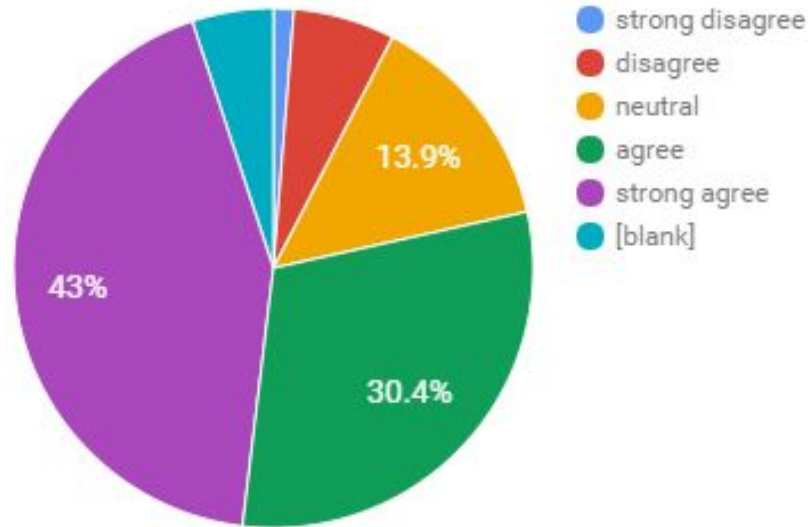

7. QCA is, or should be, an animal welfare group.

7. QCA is, or should be, an animal welfare group.

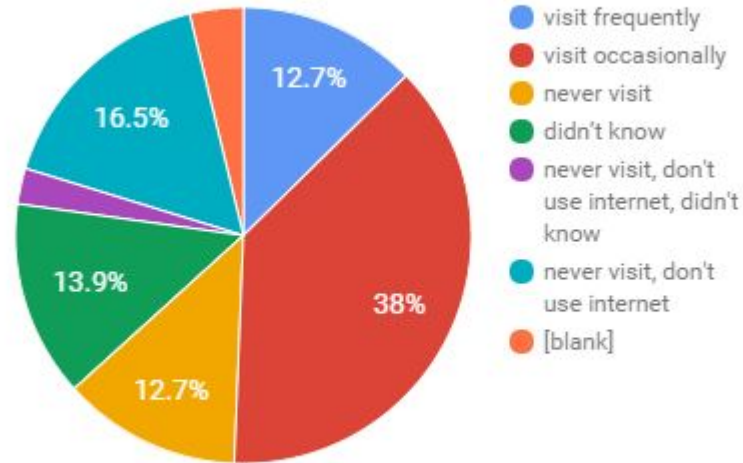

8. QCA is, or should be, an animal rights group.

8. QCA is, or should be, an animal rights group.

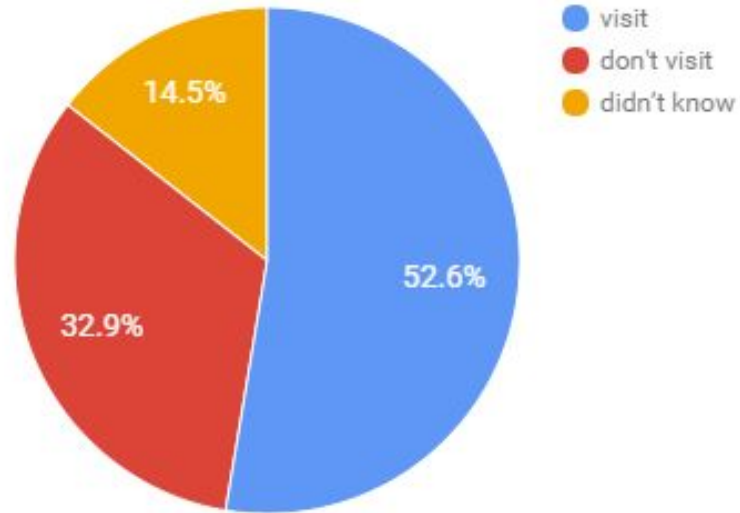

10. QCA's website is located at quaker-animals.co.uk. Which of the following would you say is most accurate for you?

10. QCA's website is located at quaker-animals.co.uk. Which of the following would you say is most accurate for you?

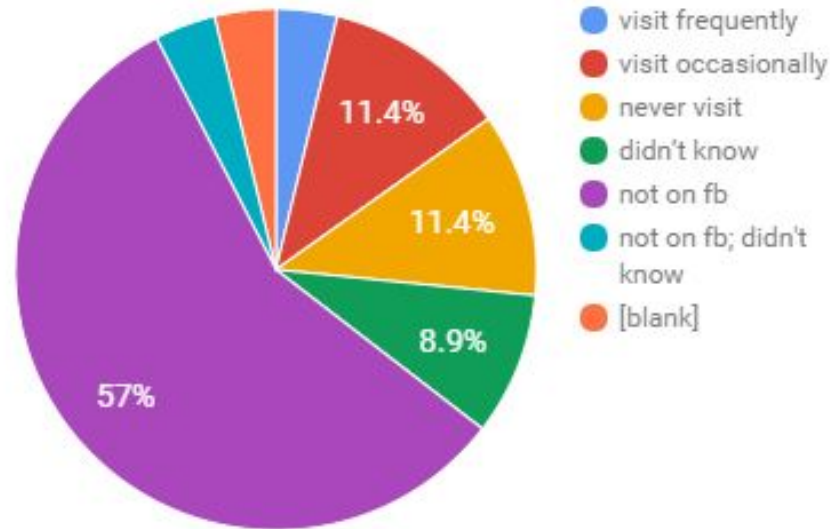

Website summary

10. QCA's website

11. QCA's facebook page is located at <https://www.facebook.com/QuakerAnimals>

11. QCA's facebook page is located at <https://www.facebook.com/QuakerAnimals>

Facebook summary.

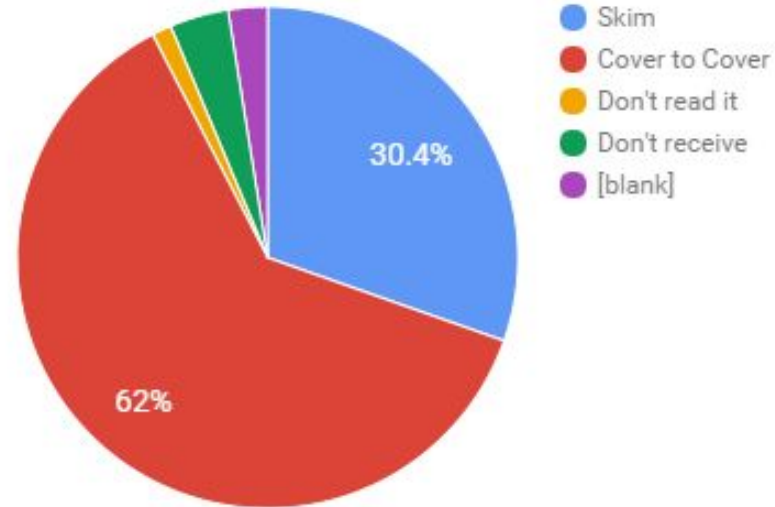

11. QCA's fb page

12. QCA's printed newsletter comes out twice a year (Spring and Autumn). Which would you say is most accurate for you?

12. QCA's printed newsletter comes out twice a year (Spring and Autumn). Which would you say is most accurate for you?

14. I share the newsletter with my Meeting or with others

14. I share the newsletter with my Meeting or with others

